Inflection – Breakout

Persona and keyword breakout 1 of 3

Modified from Dr. Lene Nielsen's work on usability and buy-in. Suggested for social media by author David Meerman Scott

Instructions: The idea is to create an archetype of your buyer persona with all the details you can provide: what the user does, is motivated professionally by, reads, works, is interested in, etc. Try to understand this person's motivation and need.

The Person	Who are they?
	Why are they interested?
The Hypothesis	Work conditions
	Work strategies and goals?
	Information strategies and needs
Verification	Likes/Dislikes
	Inner Needs
	Values
	Area of Work
	Work Conditions

Defining	What is the need of this person
Validation	Goals
	What engages this persona
	Feeling about the industry
	Feeling about technology
	Feeling about networking
	Feeling about learning
	What are the differences between them

 Insert keywords

Insert key phrases

To get found, find out about persona

❑ Create an archetype of your buyer persona with all the details you can provide:

- ✓ What the user does
- ✓ Is motivated professionally by
- ✓ Reads, works, is interested in

WIIFM? leads to WIIFT?

❑ The objective is to understand the persona's motivation and need.

- ✓ What's in it for them now provides answers to What's In It For Me? (WIIFM?)

It really is about them

Web 2.0 is about being social

The power of your blog or your hyperlink is about dialogue

- ☐ Social Media is pervasive and regenerates thoughts and ideas through a cyclical process of listening, discovering, sharing, and contributing personal or professional perspective
- ☐ Not a message, but a conversation. If you do not have anything to say, then listen

The splinternet

- ☐ In the realm of social media, companies will earn the community of customers they deserve
- ☐ Customers have choices, and if you're not consistently vying for their attention, it's pretty easy to fall off their radar screen when they evaluate options
- ☐ Conversations are markets
- ☐ It is not about selling, it is about dialogue

Communication rule #1: know your audience

What's In It For Me? (WIIFM?) the #1 communication filter

- ☐ Search engines answer questions
 - ✓ 3 and 7
- ☐ Identify the persona(s) in need of your solution
 - ✓ What are their problems?
 - ✓ What keeps them awake at night?
 - ✓ What do they want to know?

What's in it for Me? What's In It For Them? (WIIFT?)

- ☐ Write their story
 - ✓ Valued content describes issues and problems they have face and provides detail on how to solve these problems
- ☐ A source for their solution
 - ✓ Hang out where they hang out
 - ✓ Investigate words and phrases they use to describe problems?
 - ✓ Measure ROI (Return on Involvement)

Anatomy of a Peep

If a twit tweets in the woods?

☐ 50 billion

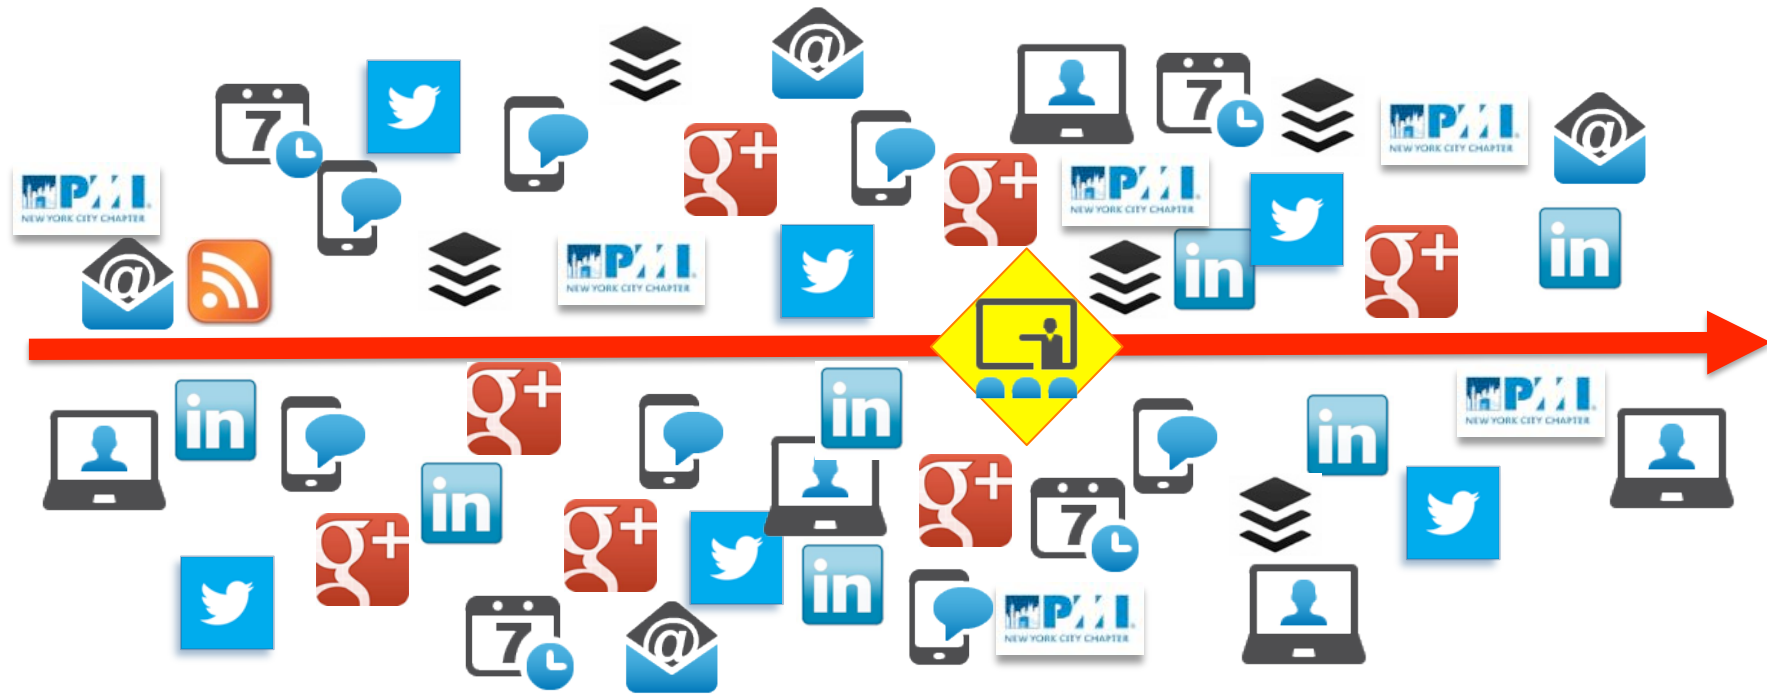

☐ 3 billion

☐ 7 seconds

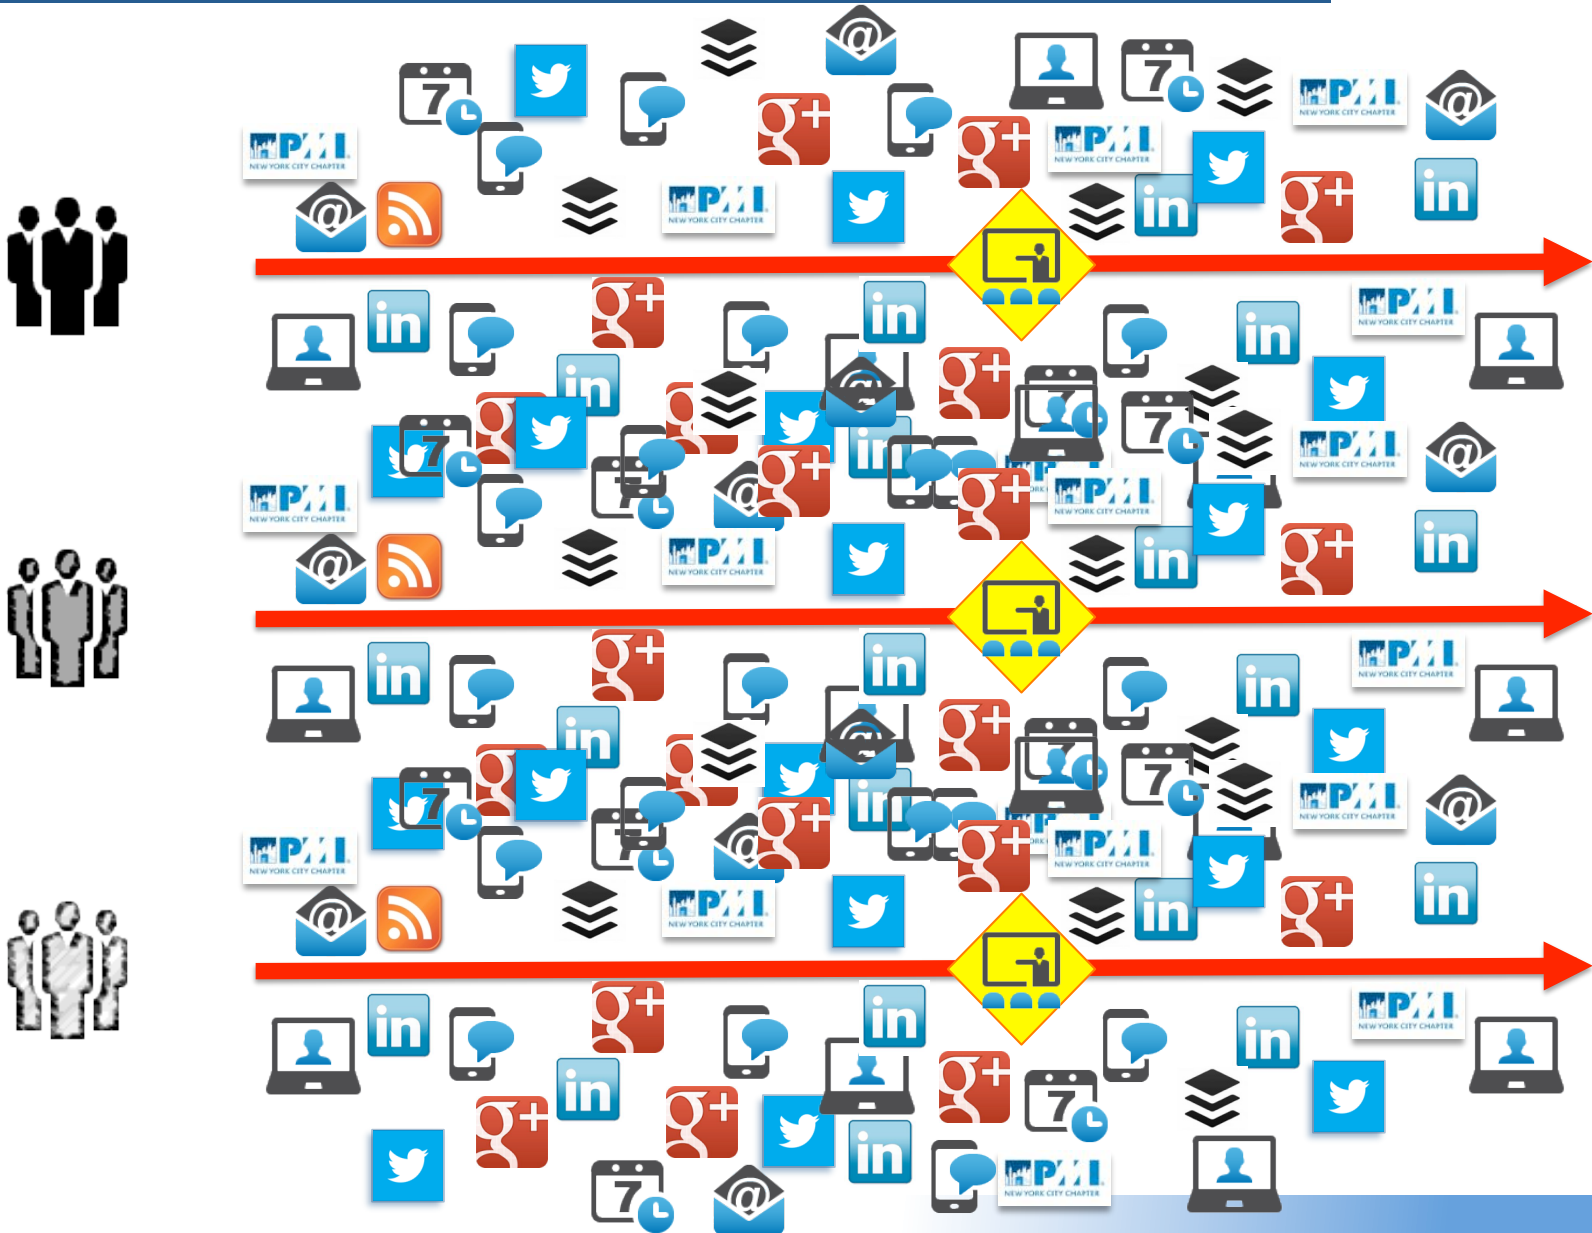

☐ 3 seconds

If the flock flocks?

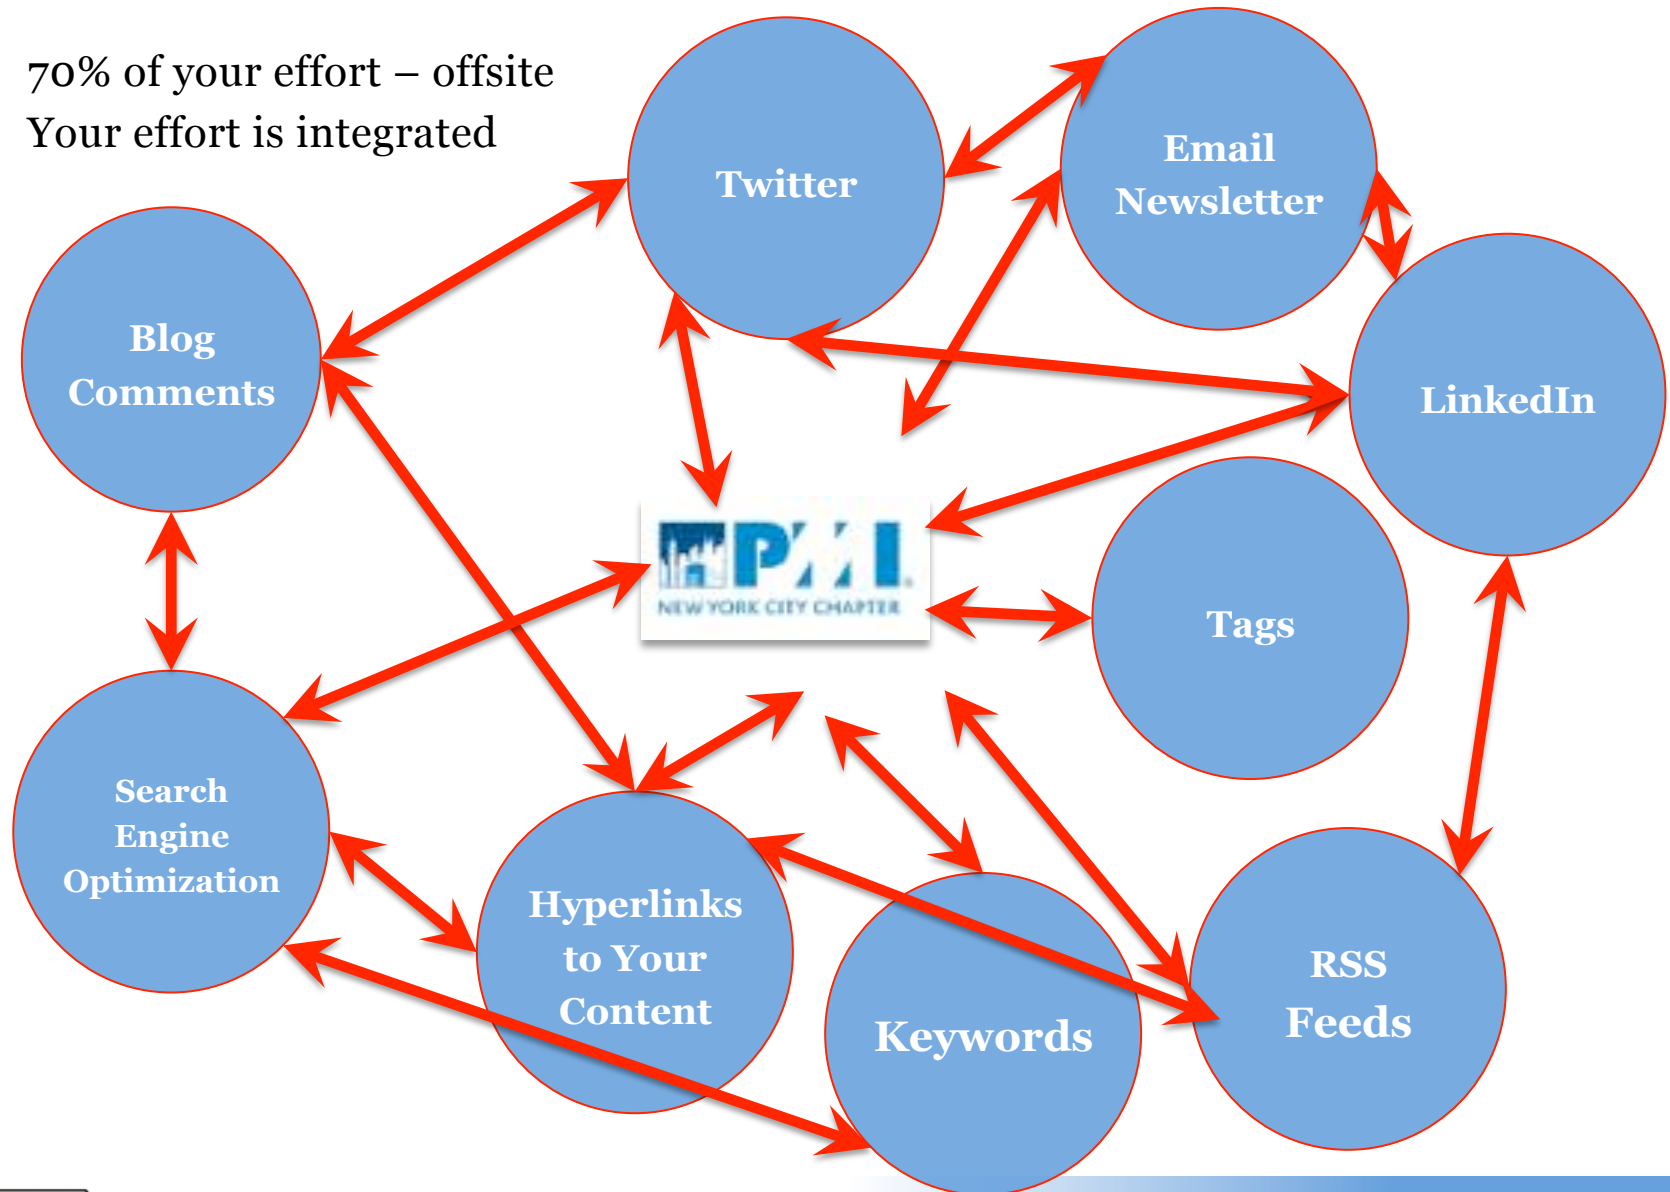

How many flocks can a good flock flock?

Migration pattern

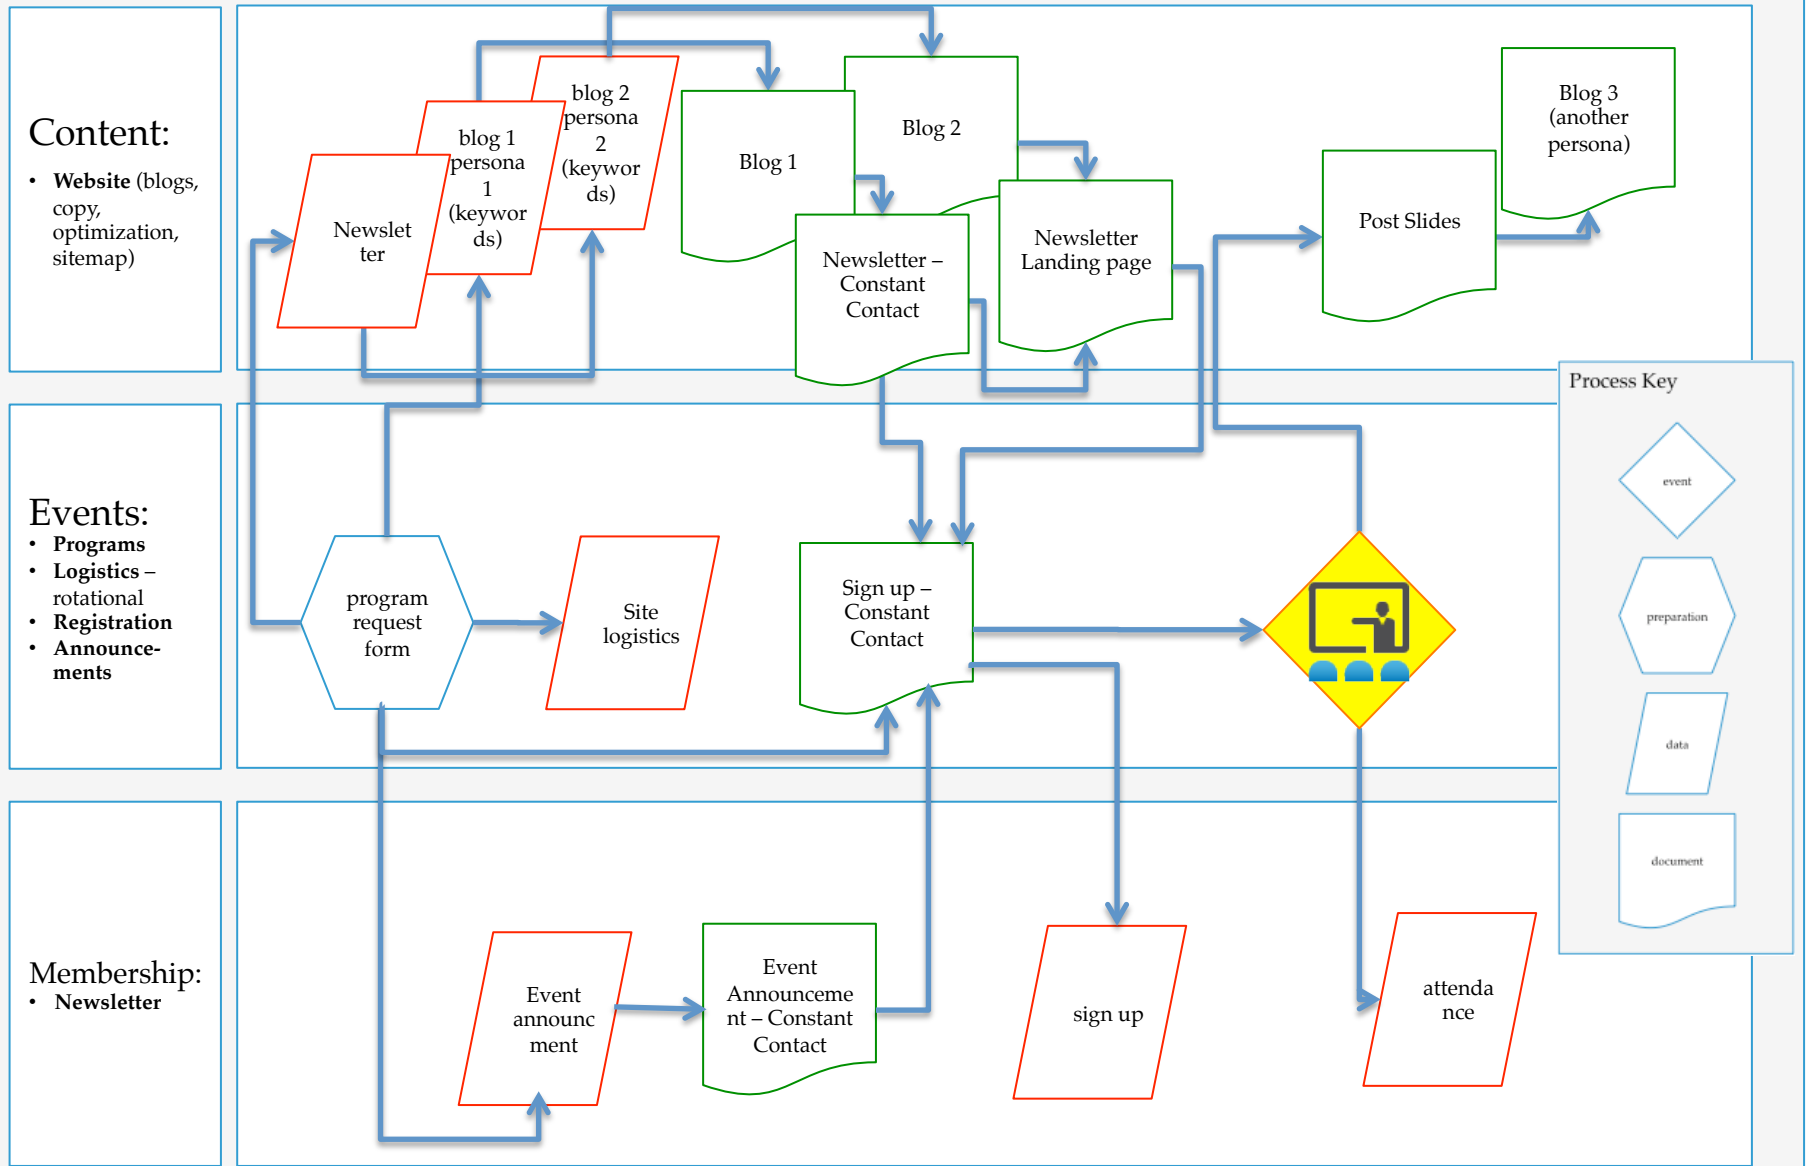

- ❑ 70% of your effort – offsite
- ❑ Your effort is integrated

Current State

Options

- ☒ Gmail
- ☒ Google Drive
- ☐ ~~Google reader~~ Feedly reader
- ☒ RSS
- ☒ j.mp
- ☒ Twitter feeder

Execution

- ☒ Migrate to gmail MX servers to leverage robust Google tools
- ☒ Store and manage documents within a single sign on
- ☐ Set up Feedly reader accounts to push new content to filter and manage information by role
- ☐ Category-specific subscription and social media ping services for auto-launch
- ☒ Link shortener
- ☒ Auto post to multiple social media sources

Options

- ☐ Commenters
- ☐ Cultivators
- ☐ Creators

Execution

- ☐ Identify sites to monitor and comment from PMINYC account
- ☐ Look at conversations happening in community channels:
 - Google+ discussions
 - LinkedIn discussions
 - Twitter discussions
 - Bloggers
- ☐ Create new content and modify for channel

Options

- ☐ Monthly meetings
- ☐ Twice weekly Agile, stand-up meetings

Execution

- ☐ Share learning and tools in a round-table format – save new technologies, tools, and options for this forum
- ☐ Maximize people's time and review challenges and opportunities

Integration of message, medium, and frequency

Iterate and modify for channel and for engagement

Identify sources of information to share, such as: PMInvoices blog

Observation:

1. News and copy is not promoted
2. Events are not synched to release
3. Content creation is not leveraged
4. Engagement channels are cumbersome

Recommendation:

1. Use more RSS feeds broken down into sub-categories
2. Monitor a short-list of sites
3. Create content off site on select blogs and sites
4. Manage and monitor conversations
5. Promote conversations, replies, and comments – content over announcement

Willing and able:

- Name 1
- Name 2
- Name 3
- Name 4
- Name 5

Observation:

1. Spread too thin
2. Lack of coordinated message
3. Inconsistent engagement

Recommendation:

1. Close Facebook
2. Rebuild teams to 1) find content 2) develop content and 3) cultivate conversation
3. Coordinate message, medium, and timeliness
4. Identify key sites to comment on
5. Assign communication liaison to filter news, events, calendar, article generation
6. Create communications triggers
7. Create communications calendar

Field Trip

Tactics – Twitter 140 character microblog

A relationship building forum

- ☐ A way to increase your brand awareness
- ☐ To create a lead funnel of prospects to your business
- ☐ An un-ending resource for you and your company
- ☐ A way to meet others across the world in similar industries, likes and interests

Twitter – Manage the 140, manage thousands

Twitter – Lists

The screenshot shows a Twitter list named 'ProjectMngt' created by Toby Elwin. The list has 44 members and 8 subscribers. The 'List subscribers' link is highlighted with a red arrow. Below the list, the 'Recently added members' section shows four users: HarePoint, Project Management, Jeff Furman, and Preben Ormen. A red arrow points to the 'Follow' button for Preben Ormen. At the bottom, the 'More lists by @TobyElwin' section lists several other lists: hoboken, ProjectMngt, PE, OD, and gadget. A red arrow points to the 'ProjectMngt' list in this section. On the left side of the image, there is a vertical word cloud with terms like 'culture', 'diversity', 'values', 'change', 'innovation', 'organization', 'risk', 'cost', 'people', 'market', 'company', 'different', 'capital', 'costs', 'work', 'often', 'company', 'market', 'different', 'capital', 'costs', 'work', 'often', 'company', 'market', 'different', 'capital', 'costs', 'work', 'often'. Below the word cloud, there is a list of four items: 'Subscribe', 'Recommendation', 'Friends', and 'Discover'. Red arrows point from these items to the 'List subscribers' link, the 'Follow' button for Preben Ormen, and the 'ProjectMngt' list in the 'More lists by @TobyElwin' section. The right side of the image shows a 'Tweets' section with five tweets from various users, including PMI, Project Management, Ankit, Velopi, Bill Mabry, PM Hut, and Project Smart News.

Appendix

Q: Where to start? A: By listening

The best social media strategy starts with ~3 to 6 months of listening:

- ☐ Start on other sites and seeing what they are talking about – then comment
- ☐ COMMENT on influential blogs in your community, industry, complementary industries, and prospective client's markets
- ☐ When you COMMENT, post informative, quality info to position yourself as an expert – this is not a sales pitch
- ☐ Develop a community – allow COMMENT and respond to them
- ☐ Incorporate subscription and user tracking tools

Share what solves problems, what answers questions

Create content worth linking to:

- ☐ Content is remarkable when someone defines it as remarkable, not when your marketing or product manager define it as remarkable. This is the greatest challenge in today's world of marketing
- ☐ You really have no control over your product's value, however, you do have control about hosting and socializing with people who will advocate, refer, and recommend your service or product
- ☐ Your strategy relies on enabling others

Thank You
